

Mother Bruce Scavenger Hunt Court Square/Downtown Coshocton

Welcome to the Mother Bruce Scavenger Hunt featuring Downtown Coshocton. All answers can be found by walking or driving around the Court Square and then up Main Street to the Coshocton Public Library. Bring your completed hunt in to Coshocton Public Library or West Lafayette Branch Library. You will receive a coupon for a yummy treat! If you have a Beanstack account, note your completion of this activity to receive a badge! All scavenger hunts are due by July 24, 2021.

1. Bruce was a bear who lived all by himself. He was a grump. He did NOT like a lot of things! He only liked one thing. He liked eggs. He did not like his eggs raw like other bears. Instead, he cooked them into fancy recipes that he found on the internet. If you ordered eggs from Tlaquepaque, what is the Spanish word for eggs?

Answer:

2. Bruce became the victim of mistaken identity. If you were to walk to the east of the courthouse, there is a sign. Make no mistake about the identity of this tiny but mighty creature! They pack a big sting, but do a lot for the environment. What is the creature on the sign?

Answer:

3. Bruce was stuck with the goslings. He had to find a way to keep them entertained. But, how? He took them to the Art Park in Downtown Coshocton, of course. The goslings played at the Art Park and found a roller coaster. The goslings had loads of fun waddling up the stairs, and sliding down the loops of the coaster. What local high school helped to design the roller coaster art project? Answer:

4. Since Bruce could not get the goslings to migrate on their own, he decided to pack some bags and head down to sunny Miami, Florida. Before leaving, Bruce wanted to take the goslings to lunch. What is the name of the restaurant right across the railroad tracks on Main Street in Coshocton? Bonus question: Bruce sees some curious objects in the bricks on the side of the restaurant. What curious objects does Bruce see? Answer:

5. After lunch, Bruce decides to take the goslings to the Coshocton Public Library to check out some books for their trip to Miami. Outside of the library, there is a statue. There are dates on the statue commemorating 100 years of reading. What are the years on the statue that span 100 years? Answer:

Bonus question: What is the title of the book close to the base of the statue that Bruce thinks the goslings would like? Hint: It is close to the base, so it's in the 1900's. What are the titles of the books above and below this title? What is the title of the book on top of the small stack at the bottom right of the statue?

Answer:
